To everything there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born,
And a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
. . . A time to weep and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance; . . .
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate. — Ecc. 3:1-8

This is the end of a time and the beginning of another time.

The Freshmen have been a busy class this year. After the excitement of being in high school wore off and after showing the school they could work together making a float, they settled down to their school work. Several students made the National Junior Honor Society, joined organizations, and participated in sports.

The Freshman girls await their turn on the trampoline.

SOPHOMORES — CLASS OF '69

This year's Sophomore Class has excelled in many different areas. They received the first place trophy in the Rotary Halloween parade. The Class of '69 had a good representation on the honor roll and captured honors in the bands, choruses, and in athletics. The Class of '69 has displayed great potential and should develop into worthy upperclassmen.

"THE BOY WHO CHANGED THE WORLD"

School sure was rough back then, huh?

"I've never been so insulted in all my life," says Dorothy Dana.

Charlie finally realizes that Sandy is his true love.

Susan Morse tells Martha and Dorothy the latest bit of gossip.

Jahn Neylan gathers votes for the on coming election.

Charlie finally achieves respect from the community when he invents the wheel.

Everyone is proud of Charlie for his achievement and cheer for him.

Dorothy Gross and Sue Daggett work hard to get every-one made up.

Mortho Pocklington helps her son through thick and thin.

The first song didn't go over so well with Vickie Reiher and her band of admirers.

"Even though he is dumb, he's my son," shouts Bill Hebron.

DRESS-UP AND HOBO DAYS

P R O M

Bill Lippold and Dennis Armour appear to be having a good time.

The first things that catch everyone's interests are the prophecy and the senior will.

A pleasant evening of dancing was enjoyed by all.

Kathy Boente and Dennis Armour seemed to be entranced by the mood of the evening.

This table seems to be having a lively conversation.

John Neylon keeps Martha Packlington, Sony Bates and Ed Wilhite entertained.

All the couples are making the most of the music.

The end of a perfect evening.
